CHARLES WOOD

Charles Wood, the renowned musician and composer, was born at 11 Vicars' Hill, Armagh in 1866 and received his early musical education as a chorister in the Cathedral opposite his home. He later studied at the Royal College of Music and became a Professor there before succeeding Stanford, that other fine Irish musician and composer, as Professor of Music at Cambridge.

When Wood died in 1926 he left behind a legacy of over 200 sacred works, plus a large number of hymn tunes. It is largely for his sacred music that he is remembered today.

The Charles Wood Summer School was established in 1993 to acknowledge his legacy with the main focus of the Summer School being music in worship.

OBJECTIVES

The Objectives of the Summer school are:

- ▶ to promote the music of Charles Wood and his association with Armagh
- ▶ to provide opportunities for people to develop and enhance skills associated with music in worship
- ▶ to present programmes of music to the highest achievable standard within both a concert and liturgical context.

ADVANTAGES OF MEMBERSHIP

Membership of the Friends is an effective way of giving support to the Summer School and ensuring its continuation.

Advantages of membership include:

- ▶ Members will receive advance notice of all events
- ▶ Members names will be printed on the programme (tick box to remain anonymous)
- ▶ Members will receive an invitation to a reception and pre-Festival talk by our Artistic Director
